

Get To Know Your Officers

Matt Reeves is the GCBA's President-Elect. He practices business, real estate, and probate litigation at Andersen, Tate & Carr, P.C. Matt graduated with honors from the University of Georgia School of Law and Mercer University, and served as Legal Counsel to the House Judiciary Committee during the 2008 Georgia General Assembly. Matt spearheaded the initiation of the GCBA Scholarship at Georgia Gwinnett College while he was Treasurer of the Gwinnett Bar. He and his wife, Suzette, live in Duluth and have three young children.

Tuwanda Rush Williams serves as Vice President of the Gwinnett County Bar Association for the 2010-2011 program year. Tuwanda is a Senior Assistant County Attorney in the Gwinnett County Law Department. She handles both transactional and litigation matters and provides day-to-day advice and counsel to several Gwinnett County Departments. Tuwanda is a native of Rochester, New York, and she has been an active member of the Georgia Bar since 1992.

She received her law degree from the State University of New York at Buffalo School of Law, where she was honored as Best Oralist in the Charles S. Desmond Moot Court Competition, and she received her Bachelors of Arts degree in Political Science from Syracuse University. Her memberships are numerous and include the Gwinnett Chapter of the Georgia Association for Women Lawyers, the Gwinnett County Minority Bar Association, the Gwinnett County Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, SWISH Too Investment Club, and Friendship Baptist Church in Duluth. She is married to Anthony Williams and they have two children, Justice and Autumn.